

CONTACT: Kathryn Moschella
KAM Public Relations
(203) 363-0301 – Office
(203) 219-6522 – Mobile
kmoschella@optonline.net

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FAIRFIELD COUNTY HOME BUILDING PROFESSIONALS RECEIVE STATE'S MOST PRESTIGIOUS INDUSTRY AWARDS

Members of the Home Builders & Remodelers Association of Fairfield County Recognized as Tops in the Home Building Industry

Fairfield, CT, November 2, 2007 – Forty-two members of the Home Builders & Remodelers Association of Fairfield County (HBRA) have been awarded the prestigious HOBI (Home Building Industry) Award. Local member companies won 52 of the 90 categories presented at a gala celebration held on November 6 at the Aqua Turf Club in Southington. Given each year by the Home Builders Association of Connecticut (HBACT), the HOBI Award recognizes the highest quality new home construction, land development, remodeling, and allied products and services associated with the residential single and multi-family housing markets in Connecticut.

The following HBRA member companies from (city, town) were awarded HOBI's: (name of member company), (name of award category):

“The HOBI Award is a well-deserved recognition highlighting the accomplishments our members have made within our industry and their commitment to our association’s standard of excellence,” notes Andrew LaSala, Jr., President of the HBRA of Fairfield County. “Each recipient of a HOBI Award is demonstrating a dedication to supplying the highest quality products and services.”

Celebrating its 60th Anniversary in December, the Home Builders and Remodelers Association of Fairfield County is dedicated to representing and advancing the interests of the home building, remodeling and land development industries in Fairfield County as well as providing the consumer community that it serves with dedicated, qualified building industry professionals. To learn more about the organization, call Maureen Callaghan Jacobson at (203) 335-7008 or visit www.fairfieldcountyhba.com.

#####